The Court of Parliament of Paris have passed the following Arrêt, dated the 16th of January, 1719.

THIS Day the King's Council entered; and M. de Lamoignon, Advocate of our said Lord the King, speaking for the rest, represented to the Court,

That the Duty of their Office, and the Fidelity they owe to the King, oblige them to lay before the Court a Printed Paper, which is dispersed in the Kingdom under the Title of A Declaration by the Catholick King, the 25th of December, 1718. and which they themselves had received under Covers by the Post.

Perusal of a Piece under a Name so much respected, they were surprized to find it not only filled with most virulent and offensive Expressions, but likewise with Maxims perfectly opposite to the Principles of Government; and that they are very far from thinking it comes from a Prince who is versed in the Rights of Sovereigns, and was brought up in the Kingdom.

That it seems to them, the Authors of this Seditious Paper, who could have no other View than fomenting Discord, sowing Divisions, and inciting Rebellion, thought they might allow themselves any Means whatever for attaining that End; that they have carried their Audaciousness so far, as to call in question the most sacred Laws of the State; and the Excess of their Licentiousness so high, as to disown the lawful Authority which governs us.

That after this, it is needless to enlarge more particularly on the Contents of such a Piece; that the Remarks which they might offer upon it would fall very short of the Idea the Court will conceive upon the bare Reading of it; and that the reading it alone will satisfy the Court of the just Grounds of the Conclusions which they have drawn up in writing, and which they submit to the Court, with the Printed Paper they received, laying on the table two Copies of the said Paper, with the Copies directed to them.

The King's Council withdrew;

The said Printed Paper intituled, A Declaration by the Catholick King the 25th of December 1718, was read;

The Matter being taken into Deliberation;

The Court Ordains, That the said Printed Paper shall be and remain suppressed as Seditious, tending to stir up Rebellion, and contrary to the Royal Authority; to this End enjoins all those who have Copies of it, to bring them to the Registry of the Court within eight Days at furthest from the Day of the Publication of the present Arrêt, there to be suppressed; forbids all Printers, Bookellers, Hawkers, and all other Persons, to print, sell, utter, or otherwise disperse the same, in any manner whatever, on pain of being prosecuted as Disturbers of the Publick Peace, and guilty of the Crime of High Treason, &c. Done in Parliament the 16th of January 1719. Signed Gilbert.

The Parliament of Bourdeaux passed a like Arrêt the 7th of this Month, ordering the Suppression of the same Piece, and forbidding all Persons to Sell, Distribute, Print, or keep it by them, on Pain of being declared Disturbers of the Publick Quiet, of Corporal Punishment, and of a Fine of 3000 Livres. The said Piece being not to be looked upon otherwise than as the Work of some turbulent Heads, who making use of a Name so sacred, and so much respected, as is that of the King of Spain, endeavour without his Knowledge or Participation, to scatter the Seeds of Trouble and Division through the Kingdom.

The pleasant Odoriferous Tincture for the Breath, Teeth and Gums, is few Drops of which instantly makes the most offensive Breath smell incomparably fine and charming, and in a very short time perfectly cures, so that a disagreeable Breath never return; it certainly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth extremely white, clean and beautiful as once using, infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd, from becoming worse, absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, the never to intermit, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth again, when almost eaten quite away, and infallibly loosens loose Teeth to Admiration. In a word, for most delicately perfuming and quickly curing of the offensive Breath, for immediately making the blackest Teeth most excellently white, certainly softening them when loose, effectually preserving them from rotting or decaying, and assuredly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its equal in the World. Is now sold only at Mr. Radford's Toy and Spectacle-Shop, at the Great Golden Palace Spectacles against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, and Arundel-street-End. Price 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

An infallible Cure for the Scurvy, and all its most grievous Symptoms in both Sexes, and in Persons of all Ages and Constitutions; by unparalleled Chymical Drugs, which purify the Blood and Juices, rectify and sweeten all the Humors, cleanse them from all Manner of Impurities, and perfectly destroy the whole Habit of all Spots, Bloaches, Surfeits, Itchings, Breakings out, and every other Distemper of the Skin; certainly removing the Westiness and Impurity, common to many scorbutick Persons, and absolutely eradicating the Scurvy, and all its attendant Symptoms in a most wonderful Manner, entirely destroying its Root and Branch, so as never to return again; and that in a very short space of Time, without the least Sicknes, Trouble or Confinement, as Thousands have experienced. Are sold only at the Two Blue Pots in Mayden Square in the Minors, at 5 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
